

EVENT PROGRAM

WAYNE STATE UNIVERSITY PRESENTS

GREEN STREET

THE INTERSECTION OF LEARNING AND SUSTAINABILITY

Virtual Conference | October 2020

GREEN STREET: EVENT PROGRAM

Visit the WSU Events Calendar to RSVP!

Tuesday,

OCT.

06

11:30am - 12:45pm

RSVP Required

PLANET WSU: OBSERVING, INHABITING, REIMAGINING OUR CAMPUS

Location: Zoom

An interactive outdoor classroom focused on the ecosystems around the WSU campus, how we adapt them for human use, how we narrate environmental challenges, and how we can plan for a sustainable campus future.

Presented by Elena Past + Michelle Serrey

Tuesday,

OCT.

13

11:30am - 12:45pm

RSVP Required

FROM LOCAL CHALLENGES TO ARCTIC AMPLIFICATION: CLIMATE CHANGE, ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE, AND ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE

Location: Zoom (in conjunction with the Environmental Science program)

An introduction to Arctic Amplification by Professor Donna Kashian, and a conversation with Sierra Club activist Justin Onwenu.

Presented by Donna Kashian + Justin Onwenu

Thursday,

OCT.

15

5:30pm - 8:00pm

RSVP Required

RELIGIOUS RESPONSES TO THE CLIMATE CRISIS: FILM AND PANEL DISCUSSION

Location: Zoom (in conjunction with ANT 3100, World Cultures, and open to the public by rsvp)

WSU premiere of a new short film, VIRGINIA'S CALLING, featuring a conservative, evangelical Christian who became a climate activist; followed by a panel discussion with guest speakers representing a variety of perspectives and religious traditions.

Presented by Barry Lyons

GREEN STREET: EVENT PROGRAM

Visit the WSU Events Calendar to RSVP!

Friday,

OCT.

16

4:00pm - 5:30pm

No RSVP Required

A ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION OF CROSS-DISCIPLINARY SUSTAINABLE ISSUES

Location: Zoom

The WSU Green Warriors presents a roundtable discussion of sustainable issues featuring guest speakers in geology, arts/fashion, global studies, social sciences, the medical field, and communications. Each speaker is associated with Wayne State and will discuss how their field interacts with the environment and sustainability.

Presented by Green Warriors. + OCS Student Interns

Friday,

OCT.

23

4:00pm - 5:00pm

RSVP Required

DARK WATERS: PFAS IN MICHIGAN, A ROUNDTABLE CONVERSATION ABOUT THE ENVIRONMENTAL AND LEGAL CONCERNS ABOUT PFAS IN OUR STATE

Location: Zoom

Dark Waters: PFAS in Michigan, a roundtable conversation about the environmental and legal concerns about PFAS in our state.

Presented by Marsha Richmond